EXECUTIVE CHEF: Rob McDaniel

GENERAL MANAGER &
WINE DIRECTOR: Daniel Goslin

DIRECTOR OF CATERING &
EVENTS: Jacob Hoop

CUISINE: Executive Chef Rob McDaniel creates an ever-evolving menu to highlight the best ingredients available and present a snapshot of the current season on the plate. He works closely with local farmers, purveyors, and fishermen to ensure the seasonally-based menu stays true to the region’s culinary heritage. Sample dishes from the spring menu include Crab Roe and Morel Mushroom Pasta, Gulf Shrimp with Chorizo Broth, and Cornmeal Crusted Soft Shell Crab.

BEVERAGE
PROGRAM: The cocktail menu is creative, seasonal, and utilizes craft spirits, as well as house-made tonics and syrups. Other beverage selections include regional beers and a reputable whiskey collection. The wine list is playful and adventurous, and frequently rotates to compliment the cuisine.

SPACE:

Located within the Russell Lands On Lake Martin residential community, SpringHouse occupies a commanding location on a hill overlooking The Stables, pastures, Russell Forest, and – in the distance – serene Lake Martin. The restaurant's interior features exposed stone, rough-hewn beams, an open kitchen, and oversized hearth in the center of the dining room. The restaurant includes an upstairs bar and dining area, known as The Promontory, as well as two outdoor patios. The Well House is a circular, 12-seat private dining room accessed via the restaurant's subterranean wine cellar

DETAILS:

Reservations are accepted for the main dining room and covered porch. The bar area is seated on a first-come, first-served basis.
